

ELAC Needs Assessment Parent Survey

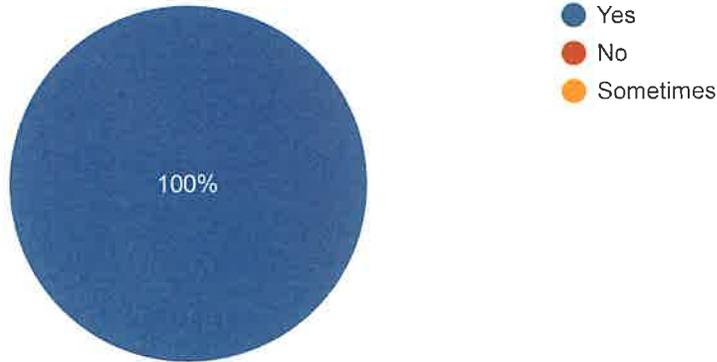

9 responses

Publish analytics

I feel welcomed at my child's school.

 Copy

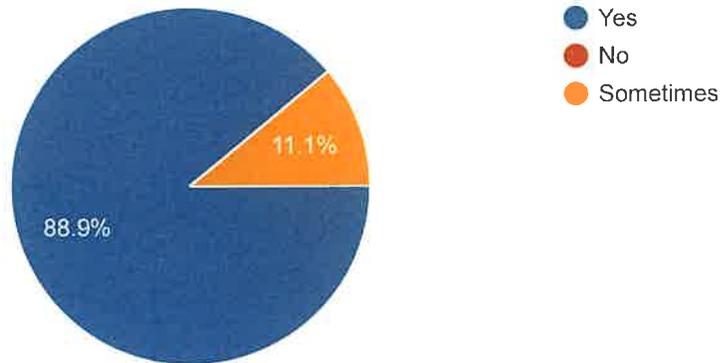

9 responses

The service I receive from the school staff is pleasant.

 Copy

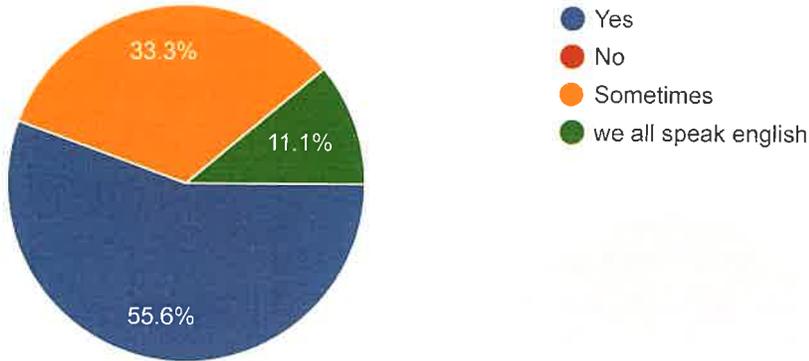

9 responses

The school makes an effort to provide someone who communicates in my language.

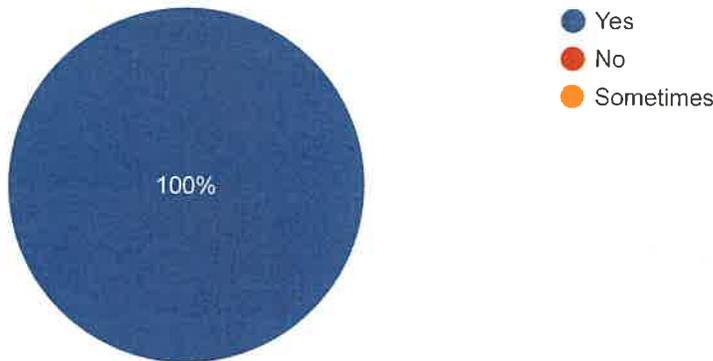

9 responses

I receive communication from the school in a language I can understand.

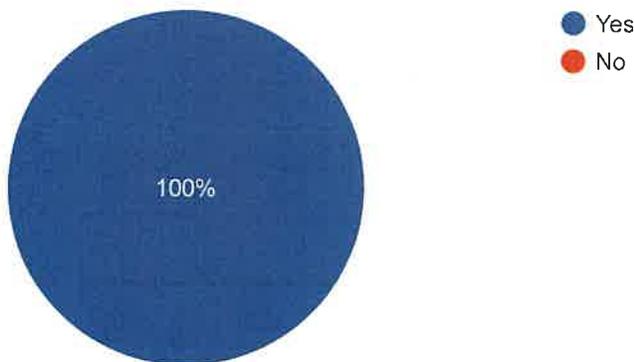

9 responses

When I need help or have a question, I know who to talk to at the school.

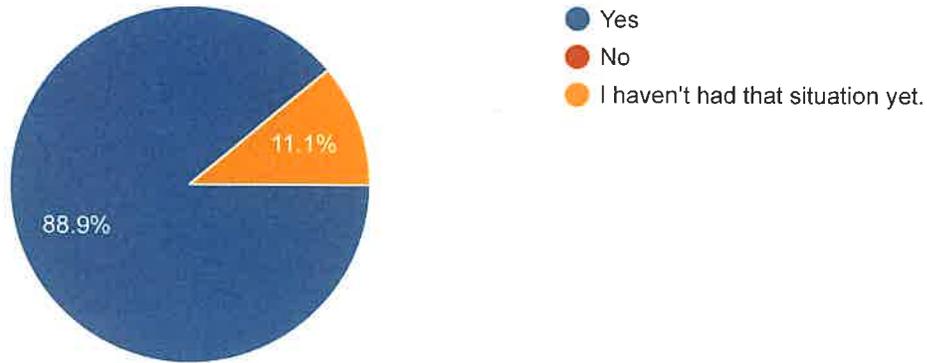

9 responses

The school returns my calls and emails in a timely manner.

 Copy

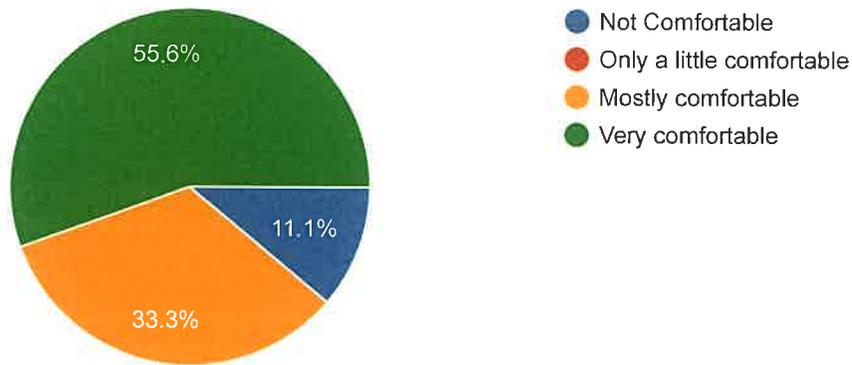

9 responses

How comfortable do you and your child feel about attending school gatherings?

 Copy

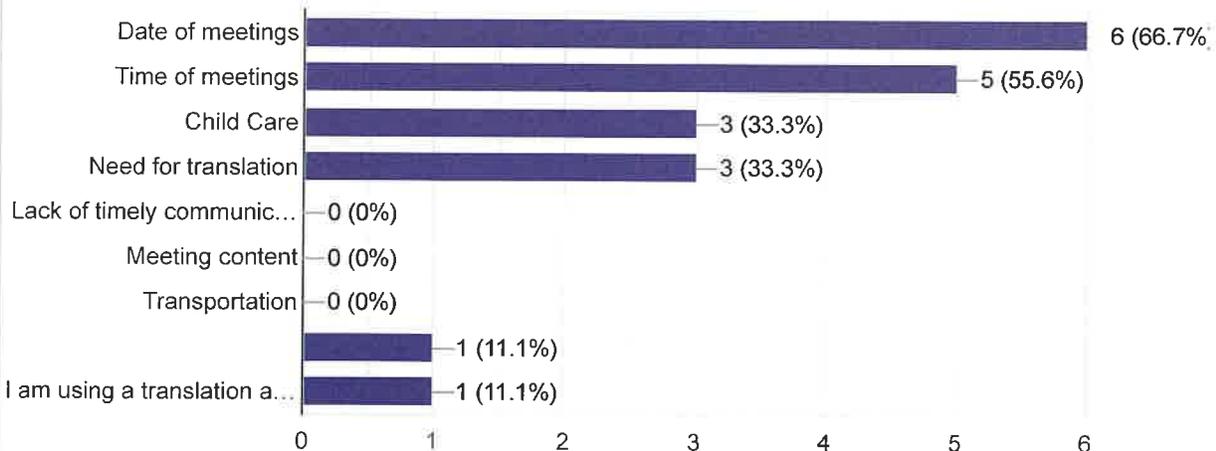

9 responses

What are some obstacles that keep you from attending parent meetings at school (class meetings, board meetings, DEIB meetings, etc)?

 Copy

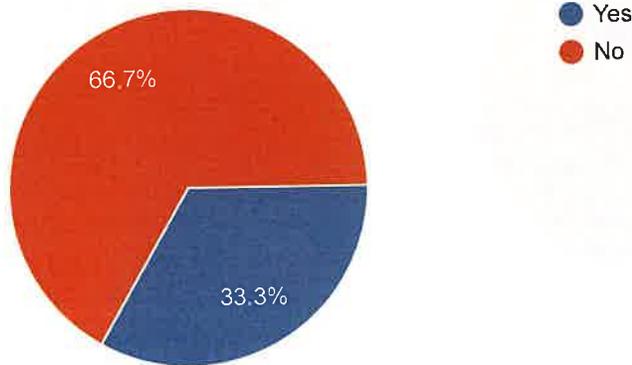

9 responses

Are you interested in participating in our English Language Advisory Committee (ELAC) meetings that take place one time per quarter in person and focus on ELD program components?

9 responses

Please list any suggestions you have or describe what you might be interested in learning more about during future ELAC meetings.

3 responses

I'm enjoying this meeting. Please just keep going

To improve language skills, students need a language environment. But the school does not separate those who speak the same language.

One of my kids is EL. Just not sure by the name what it means, are we trying to say she doesn't know english? that is the language she speaks. or is this a learning disability? Very vague diagnostic. Still confused, but will come to attend the meeting so I can learn more

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google. - Contact form owner - Terms of Service - Privacy Policy

Does this form look suspicious? Report

Google Forms

